Betty Boop

Option One

“Be human ‘cause animals can cry. Be human, it’s easy if you try. So have a tender word, for every animal and bird. Don’t think you’re wonderful just because you weren’t born with a tail and paws. It’s futile to be brutal, it won’t get you a dime. If we would all be human, this world would be in rhyme. So be human all the time! Boop-Oop-a-Doop!”

Option Two

Hello everybody, Betty Boop here, live and in colour! Work's been kinda slow since cartoons went to colour. But I still got it! Here’s how I did it: (Singing)
“Keep your girlish figure, with a lot of exercise. Shake your hips and roll your eyes. Stay away from cakes and pies. If you find that you’re too plump, take off the extra bumps, with a hop and a skip and a jump!” Oh, goody, goody, goody! And that’s how I stay so bea-utiful! Boop-Oop-a-Doop!

Beetlejuice

Option One

Ah. Well, I attended Julliard. I'm a graduate of the Harvard business school. I travel quite extensively. I lived through the Black Plague, and had a pretty good time during that. I've seen The Exorcist about a hundred and sixty-seven times, and it keeps getting funnier every single time I see it. Not to mention the fact that you're talking to a dead guy. Now what to do you think? You think I'm qualified?

Option Two

(Beetlejuice Commercial)

Heehoo! Havin' trouble with the livin'? You tired of havin' your home space violated? Wanna get rid of them pesky livin' critters once and for all? Well come on down and see me folks, I'm the afterlife's leading bio-exorcist. Yes siree! So come on down, and I'll tell ya, I'll do anything. I'll scare 'em real bad. Hell, I'll even possess myself! (Demonstrates) Yo, I got demons runnin' all through me, all through me. (Stops) Come on down and see it. And if you act now, you get a free demon possession with every exorcism, now you can't beat that can ya? Hell, bring the little pards down here. We got plenty of snakes and lizards for them to play with. There's no problem with that at all. So, say it once, say it twice, three times' a charm, and remember, (Singing) "I'll eat anything you want me to eat, and I'll swallow anything you want me to swallow. So come down I'll...chew on a dog" (Howls).

Marilyn Monroe

Option One

I'm an actress. Well, sort of. I do the commercial part. Honest, it's a very good part. First, they put a little gray makeup on my teeth to show what happens when you use ordinary toothpaste. Then, they wipe it off again to show what happens when you use Dazzledent. I kind of sit there like this (Smiles), for about 14 seconds. And I get to speak lines too: "I had onions at lunch. I had garlic dressing at dinner. But he'll never know, because I stay kissing sweet, the new Dazzledent way."

Option Two

Honestly, don't you know that a man being rich is like a girl being pretty? You wouldn't marry a girl just because she's pretty, but my goodness, doesn't it help? And if you had a daughter wouldn't you rather she didn't marry a poor man? You'd want her to have the most wonderful things in the world, and to be very happy. Well, why is it wrong for me to want those things?

Option Three

You know what I tried yesterday? I tried to sleep in the bathtub. Just lying there up to my neck in cold water. But there was something wrong with the faucet. It kept dripping. It was keeping me awake, so you know what I did? I pushed my big toe up the faucet. The only thing was, my toe got stuck and I couldn't get it back out again. But thank goodness there was a phone in the bathroom, so I was able to call the plumber. He was very nice. Even though it was Sunday, I explained the situation to him, and he rushed right over. But it was sort of embarrassing. Honestly, I almost died! There I was with a perfectly strange plumber, and no polish on my toenails.

Donkey LIVE! (Donkey from SHREK)

Option One

(Desperately Talking) I don't want to rush into a... physical relationship. I'm not that emotionally ready for a...uh... commitment of this...uh...magnitude! Really, that's the word I'm looking for, magnitude...Hey! That is unwanted physical contact! Hey! What're you doing? Okay, okay, okay... let's just back up a little and take this one step at a time... I mean, we should really get to know each other first, you know, as friends or maybe even as pen pals, you know, coz I'm on the road a lot, but I just LOVE to get a card. Hey, hey, hey, don't do that! That's my tail! That's MY personal tail! You're gonna tear it off! I don't give permission to... Hey, what're you gonna do with that? Oh, no, no, no, no... no!

Option Two

Can I say something to you? You was really, really something back there. Incredible! They thought they was all that. Then you showed up, and bam! They were trippin' over themselves like babes in the woods. That really made me feel good to see that. Say, you lost or something? You tryin' to figure out the best route to Duloc? I know Duloc! Let me show you the way! I am like a GPS with fur baby! Shrek and Donkey, on a whirlwind adventure!

Option Three

(Meeting Dragon for the first time) Oh, what large teeth you have! I mean, white sparkly teeth! I know you probably hear this all the time from your food, but you must bleach or something 'cause that's one dazzling smile you got there! And do I detect a hint of minty freshness? And you know something, you're...a girl dragon! Oh, sure, I mean of COURSE you're a girl dragon! You're just reeking of feminine beauty and... (Dragon winks at him) Hey, what's the matter with you, you got somethin' in your eye? (She blows smoke in his face) Ohh... well, you know, I gotta go. I'm an asthmatic, I don't hold with smoke rings and stuff. SHREK!

Host Roles

Option One (Dr. Rodney)

(Holding a baby Triceratops) “Hello everyone! My name is Dr. Rodney. I’m a Paleontologist here at Jurassic Park, and this little beauty in my arms is Diane; our newest baby triceratops. She was born 3 months ago at our InGen facility. We cloned Diane by extracting the DNA found in mosquitos that were preserved in fossilized amber during the Mesozoic era. Wow, that’s a mouthfull! Did you know that Triceratops measure about 30 feet long, 10 feet tall (3m), and weighed about 6-12 tons? That means that Dine will grow to be twice the size of a rhinoceros, and half the size of a city bus! Pretty incredible huh? Well, it looks like Diane is getting a bit hungry. I better take her back and feed her. It was a pleasure talking to you all and enjoy your day here at Jurassic Park!”

Option Two (Dance For The Magic Beans)

(Spanish Accent)

(Male) Hola, Senor’s and Senorita’s! The Milk Bar is open! Welcome all of my favorite Milk Bar regulars. I am Alejandro Jorge Fernando Chimichanga (breath) Smith, the milk bartender!

(Female) Hola, Senor’s and Senorita’s! The Milk Bar is open! Welcome all of my favorite Milk Bar regulars. I am Isabella Consuela Margarita Guacamole (breath) Smith, the milk bartender.

Come on over everybody, the Milk Bar is open. We have all kinds of milk on tap. Regular milk, chocolate milk, strawberry milk, coconut milk, & of course chili milk for those cold rainy days. Gather around, muchachos and muchachas! Put aside your maracas and castanets. For tonight, you will witness the dance fight of the century. The prize; magic beans! Not a one, not a three, but a two magic beans. For the last 10 years, 60 cat years, no gato has won these highly desired magic beans. And why? The legend says the beans will lead to the goose that laid the golden egg.

Option Three (Raptor Host)

Move out of the way people! Live dinosaur coming through! (To audience) Hi everyone, my names (Insert name). I am an intern here at Jurassic Park, and today is my first day! My first day, and they give me a raptor. A raptor! They couldn't have given me something a little less...scary. Like a butterfly! Or a dog! I like dogs... (Realizing off topic) Okay, well since I'm here, let me tell you a little bit about the raptor before she eats me. This little lady is called specimen 438768, or as I like to call her...Bitey. It's all in the name folks. Oh, I forgot the rules! Rule #1, keep a safe distance from the raptor. You see, I have this friend...well...had this friend. But that's another story. A sad story. Rule #2, if she escapes...run!!!! The exits are there, there, there, there, and there! That's about it! Now, who wants a photo?
