Double Dragons, Double Bliss at Resorts World Sentosa This Lunar New Year

Giving back to society remains a key focus with Spend For Charity lucky draw; More than S$125,000 to be donated by RWS

Singapore, 19 January 2012 – The sky’s the limit for good fortune this Lunar New Year as dragons of all shapes and sizes take to the skies, blessing guests at Resorts World Sentosa with prosperity and joy at Singapore’s first integrated resort.

Leading the pack will be two giant dragons – a Golden Dragon at The Bull Ring, and an Auspicious Dragon spreading warmth and joy for charity.

Over the first 15 days of the Year of the Dragon, the Golden Dragon will be the ambassador of wealth, blessing guests with good fortune. The Auspicious Dragon will call The Forum home, ushering in the Spend For Charity lucky draw¹ – giving away cash prizes of $888 every night to three guests each, and a big ‘ang pow’ of S$88,000 in the Grand Draw, to be held on 6 February 2012, the last day of the Lunar New Year celebrations.

In line with the signature feature of RWS’ Spend For Charity programme which debuted last year, the lucky winners will each choose a charity of their choice from one of the 19 schools catered to children with special needs under the Community Chest, to receive matching donations from RWS. Through this event, the integrated resort will donate more than S$125,000 to the Community Chest.

Besides decorations that adorn the sprawling resort and activities to herald the festivities, guests can also look forward to delectable reunion dining options² for the entire family. From authentic Cantonese cuisine at Feng Shui Inn, Italian fare at Palio, a taste of Australia at Osia, to a scrumptious seafood buffet at Starz Restaurant, guests will be spoilt for choice.

Ms Andrea Teo, Vice President of Entertainment at RWS, said: “Lunar New Year is a time for family togetherness and this year, our stellar line-up of brand new attractions – including the Malaysian Food Street, the Maritime Experiential Museum and Aquarium, the world’s first TRANSFORMERS The Ride and Hollywood Dreams Parade at Universal Studios Singapore – will give our guests even more reasons to usher in the Year of the Dragon here at RWS.”

“Yet, what remains unchanged is our spirit of giving. A small token during this joyous occasion will mean so much for the less privileged and so, charity remains a key focus of our celebrations this year,” Ms Teo added.

The Auspicious Dragon at The Forum™

From 23 January 2012 to 6 February 2012, a giant Auspicious Dragon made up of 168, 228 or 288 lanterns will take to the sky at The Forum, Resorts World Sentosa. Guests who spend $38 or more in a single receipt at all outlets in Resorts World Sentosa can participate in the lucky draw by picking the correct number of dragon lanterns and dropping their entry forms into the corresponding golden barrel.

From these entries three daily prizes of $888 will be picked regardless of correct or incorrect answers, with RWS matching dollar-for-dollar to a charity of each winner's choice³. Daily draws will be conducted at 6.08pm every evening⁴, with one winner picked from each golden barrel. Winners will have 24 hours to collect their prizes which otherwise would be rolled over to the Grand Draw.

The Grand Prize of $88,000 will be given out at 8.08pm on the 15th day of the Lunar New Year, on 6 February 2012. The winning ticket will be drawn from the golden barrel that carries the correct number of dragon lanterns. The Grand Prize winner will not only take home an ang pow of S$88,000 for himself, but like the other winners, gets to choose a charity organisation of choice³ to receive a matching-dollar donation from RWS.

³ Charity chosen is to be one of the 19 schools catered for children with special needs under the auspices of Community Chest Singapore.

⁴ The last daily draw will be conducted on 5 February 2012. The Grand Draw will be held on 6 February 2012.
