Trick Eye Museum Opens on 8 June 2014 at Resorts World Sentosa Transform into an angel, blast off in a canon, and touch the moon at the First 3D museum in Singapore

SINGAPORE, 28 May 2014 – Annyeong Haseyo! The much-anticipated and original three-dimensional art gallery, Trick Eye Museum will open its doors at Resorts World Sentosa's Waterfront on 8 June 2014. Fun-filled activities for the whole family are in store to celebrate its opening day.

As the first overseas venture of the renowned South Korean gallery, the museum will feature 80 paintings and optical illusion installations. More than 50 artworks were created specially and adapted for the Singapore gallery. This includes original pieces such as Merlion Boat and Horse Racing. A sculpture of a giant baby that will welcome visitors at the museum will be making its debut as well – the first time this exhibit is being displayed.

This new attraction is easily accessible from the Sentosa Boardwalk, located minutes from the entrance to the integrated resort. Operating daily from 10.00am to 9.00pm, visitors to the museum will journey through six themed zones, titled World of Masterpieces, Safari Kingdom, Stars of Circus, Dreams of Fairytale, Love in Winter, and Adventure Discovery. Besides original artworks, the museum will also be home to popular art pieces replicated from the South Korean gallery, including Angel's Wings, Moon over the Sky and Human Cannonball.

"We are excited to extend our reach to Singapore and it is a great honour to be collaborating alongside Resorts World Sentosa in this much anticipated project," said Ms Sujin Oh, Curator of Trick Eye Museum. "We are looking forward to sharing our wonderful works of art based on Trompe-l'oeil. Our greatest fulfillment will be the looks of awe and amazement on people's faces. Trick Eye Museum will be a perfect addition to the family-friendly attractions in the resort."

Mr Goh Chye Boon, Executive Vice President of Resort Operations at Resorts World Sentosa, added: "Photo-taking is one of the must-do activities for visitors at our resort and Trick Eye Museum provides the perfect opportunity. The opening of Trick Eye Museum will not only bolster our line-up of attractions and enliven our resort's waterfront but will also provide more opportunities for guests to bond, create moments to remember and share for a lifetime with their loved ones."

To complement the opening of Trick Eye Museum, more Korean-themed F&B and retail concepts will also open at the Resort's Waterfront, creating a Korean cluster. Opening in the third quarter of 2014, Insadong Korea Town will feature a Korean market-place concept offering a variety of authentic Korean F&B specialties, street food, as well as hand-made Korean trinkets, cosmetics and accessories.

One-day admission tickets to Trick Eye Museum at Resorts World Sentosa are priced at S$25 for adults and S$20 for children/seniors. Multi-attraction packages are also available. Guests can purchase tickets and packages onsite or online at www.trickeye.com/singapore or www.rwsentosa.com. RWS Invites members will get a chance to attend a special preview of the gallery on 7 June 2014.
