All-New Soak Out Water Party at Universal Studios Singapore

Adrenaline-seekers can enjoy cutting-edge rides and attractions and take part in the all-new Soak Out Water Party with the Minions, Sesame Street friends and more at Universal Studios Singapore. From 13 June to 10 August 2016, visitors can immerse in a festive parade that runs through select zones in the park and have a splashing good time at the Lagoon Stage in the Hollywood zone with close to 50 characters and entertainers grooving to catchy music and engaging in water play fun.

The party culminates in a water cannon blast, alongside high-flying aerialists who will give revellers a refreshing cool-down in the park. Visitors can continue to chill out in an evening after-party at the New York Public Library with live performances by DJ Inquisitive and the Good Karma band on select Friday and Saturday nights.

Latest Fishy Friends at S.E.A. Aquarium's Tropical SEAFest

Cool off indoors at Tropical SEAFest in S.E.A. Aquarium and be intrigued by the latest fishy residents at three new thematic habitats – Hawaii, California and the Caribbean. Over 200 specimens from more than 40 species are featured in these new permanent exhibits.

Visitors can marvel at the bright orange Garibaldi and California sheephead fish as they weave through swaying fronds of kelp in a habitat inspired by the underwater Southern Californian kelp forest. Another unique species featured at Tropical SEAFest is the threatened Rooster Hogfish, named for its pig-like snout and large protrusible mouth useful for finding prey on the sea floor. Kids can go on an educational Tropical Trail to discover more about the new underwater residents and get creative at the crafts zone.

Wet Maze and Rainbow Reef at Adventure Cove Waterpark

For exhilarating water play, visitors can splash down to the new Wet Maze at Adventure Cove Waterpark. This two-level obstacle course features twists and turns that are brimming with sneaky water blasters, water sprays and even a mid-air ropes course for visitors to navigate the terrain. Found in Southern California and the Channel Islands, the Garibaldi is the largest member of the damselfish family, marked by its bright orange colour with sparkling spots of blue-trimmed fins. Their diet of sponges may contribute to their bright colours. Visitors can marvel at these vividly coloured fish as they weave through swaying fronds of kelp in a habitat inspired by the underwater Californian kelp forest at S.E.A. Aquarium.

Visitors can look forward to seeing the threatened Rooster Hogfish, named for its pig-like snout and large protrusible mouth useful for finding prey on the sea floor, at the Caribbean habitat at S.E.A. Aquarium. Other unique species uniquely found in the Caribbean include the Queen Angelfish and Queen Triggerfish.

Propel into action-packed excitement at the Wet Maze, a new two-level adventure play experience at Adventure Cove Waterpark. Adventure-seekers will have to navigate a terrain featuring twists and turns, sneaky water blasters, water sprays and even a mid-air ropes course.
