Free flow King of Fruits to delight and satisfy every craving

With the durian season now in full swing, the King of Fruits makes a triumphant return to RWS. Back by popular demand, these top grade durians offer aficionados the most bang for their buck this year with live entertainment and tasty street food thrown in, upping the offerings from previous editions of the hugely popular RWS Durian Fest.

The premium durian buffet will feature the finest of durian varieties. Guests can savour to their hearts' content the uniquely bittersweet and custardy, butter-like flesh of Premium Grade Mao Shan Wang, or indulge in the vibrant reddish orange-fleshed Ang Hae (Red Prawn, 红虾) variant that boasts a creamy, honeyed flavour profile, perfect for the sweet-toothed.

Also available are unlimited helpings of D13, Hu Lor (葫芦), Black Pearl (黑珍珠) and Jin Feng (金凤) durian varieties, a mind-boggling smorgasbord guaranteed to send the most ardent of durian fans into a feasting tizzy. Too rich an indulgence? Fret not as guests can cool off with chilled coconut water or homegrown Three Legs Cooling Water (三脚标清热水), known for its traditional medicinal properties and ability to relieve body heat.

Tuck into tasty street food and beverages

Besides durians, guests can refresh in the sweltering summer heat with a spread of tropical fruits including mangosteen (山竹), rambutan (红毛丹), longan (龙眼), buah langsung (兰撒) and jackfruit (菠萝蜜). There will also be delectable street food favourites with a retro-touch. Guests who are still hungry can tuck into golden brown Ngoh Hiang (五香, five-spice pork rolls wrapped in bean curd skin) or traditional comfort food Laksa (叻沙). Wash it all down with thirst-quenching beverages reminiscent of the good old days like homemade chrysanthemum tea, homemade barley and sugarcane juice.

Set in a nostalgic 1960s ambience, guests can groove along and have their evening livened up with an amazing line-up of jaunty and ecstatic sessions featuring popular getai performers.

Admission to Good Ol' Days is priced at S$98 per admission for public and S$88 per admission for RWS Invites members (名胜世界盛情会员) which includes free flow of durians, fruits as well as other food and beverages, plus getai performances. Terms and conditions apply.
