SINGAPORE, 8 June 2022 – Get ready for more hair-raising experiences this Halloween. Universal Studios Singapore's Halloween Horror Nights will return this year for its 10th edition after a two-year hiatus due to the pandemic, with the promise of plenty of thrills and chills for those who dare.

Experience never-before-seen haunted houses, scare zones, laser tag, a dining experience and behind-the-scenes tour, as fans put their courage to the test at Singapore's largest and award-winning scare event. To mark the iconic event's 10th edition, for the first time ever, Universal Studios Singapore's Halloween Horror Nights will run across 19 event nights on select nights, from 30 September till 5 November 2022.

Universal Studios Singapore's daytime family-friendly Halloween event will also make its highly-anticipated return, with a park-wide procession featuring all-new original characters and meet and greets. The daytime event will run from 7 September till 6 November 2022. More details and ticketing information about both events will be revealed closer to the start dates.

To ensure fans get a good scare at the event, Halloween Horror Nights is looking for talented scareactors to bring the event to life. Aspiring and seasoned scareactors alike can submit their auditions online from 9 to 19 June 2022. More details on the auditions can be found at www.rwsentosa.com/ussauditions.
