SINGAPORE, 17 July 2023 – Southeast Asia’s most iconic scare fest returns with new thrills and is back to full scale. From 29 September to 4 November 2023, Universal Studios Singapore Halloween Horror Nights 11 will have five terrifying haunted houses, three sinister scare zones, two live shows and a multi-sensory dining experience. Over 18 event nights, fans can prepare to scream as the year’s most anticipated Halloween event in the region takes them to a new level of fear.

Five Haunted Houses

In addition to the previously unveiled All of Us Are Dead haunted house – in collaboration with one of the world’s leading entertainment services, Netflix – fans can steel themselves for three horrifying new haunted houses:

- Rebirth of the Matriarch brings back the titular character from the very first edition of Universal Studios Singapore Halloween Horror Nights, where guests will step foot into the family home where a deadly ritual is being conducted to bring The Matriarch back to life. The haunted house is presented by Official Partner Coca Cola Zero Sugar.
- DIYU: Descent into Hell puts Chinese mythology centre stage as guests face King Yama’s judgement and punishment for their earthly sins.
- Grimm Encounters is a twisted take on the Pied Piper, whose sinister tunes have corrupted everyone’s favourite fairy tales.

Fans should stay tuned for the reveal of the fifth and final, immersive haunted house, coming soon.

Three Scare Zones

More frights await throughout the park as guests traverse the darkness in the streets:

- Dead Man's Wharf brings visitors face to face with real-life historical figure Madame Dragon, the fearsome, legendary Chinese pirate and her motley crew.
- The Hacker, a destructive A.I. being, reigns supreme over a terrifying cyber-hellscape, where technology feeds off the desperate souls of mankind. The scare zone is presented by Official Partner Tiger Soju Infused Lager.
- The Cursed Kiramam is an Indian village cursed by the gods, whose once prosperous inhabitants now exist in a state of perpetual torment. Venture in to see if the villagers can escape their impending doom.

Two Live Shows

Experience two pulse-throbbing shows every night:

- Judgement Day is the night's grand opening Scaremony. Watch as an unfortunate soul tries to escape his final judgement amidst flame and fury.
- The Hacker: Game Over shows how a destructive A.I being invades and corrupts the games of her victims as she tries to hack her way out of the virtual world and into their nightmares.

Multi-Sensory Dining Experience

Guests who have the stomach for more horrors can join King Yama's Feast in Die-ning in Hell. Three gruesome tortures – fire, blade and blood – will be served over a scarily sumptuous three-course meal. All the while, diners will be entertained by chilling performances by King Yama's dreadful demons.

During event nights, Die-ning in Hell is served at the Hollywood China Arcade over three 80-minute sessions: 6pm, 7.45pm or 9.20pm. It is available with a S$128 top up to a Halloween Horror Nights 11 admission ticket.

Die-ning in Hell is also available to guests during non-event nights on Mondays and Tuesdays, from 2 to 31 October. There are two sessions per day, at 5.30pm and 7.30pm. Tickets for the dining experience are available at S$148.
