Soar into longevity at Resorts World Sentosa this Lunar New Year
Premium lifestyle destination celebrates Year of the Dragon with a wealth of extra-lucky festivities and enticing offerings

Usher in an extra-lucky New Year with Resorts World Sentosa's wealth of festivities.

SINGAPORE, 15 January 2024 – Resorts World Sentosa (RWS, 圣淘沙名胜世界) celebrates the year of the Dragon with an array of fun-filled festivities and entertainment as well as auspicious culinary treasures all under one roof across the premium lifestyle destination.

Usher in good fortune with a host of festivities and entertainment at RWS

Watch the 88m LED dancing dragon light up the night sky to usher in good fortune at Resorts World Sentosa.

As visitors enjoy the multitude of festive offerings at the integrated resort, bask in the spirit of spring with an exhilarating Starlit Dragon Spectacular (龙腾炫舞) live performance. Featuring a majestic 88 metres LED Dragon, this captivating Lunar New Year show is set under a starry night sky to welcome the Year of the Dragon ahead. The free public show commences with a thrilling performance by five drummers symbolising the five elements in the world (ie. Earth, Water, Fire, Air and Spirit).

A soloist gracefully navigates the crowd recounts his narrative, accompanied by captivating dancers. The 88m LED dragon then makes its hugely anticipated appearance and blesses the crowd. Set at the Lake of Dreams (梦之湖) of Level One at the Forum (福廊), the event is scheduled on 10 (Saturday) to 13 February (Tuesday) as well as 16 (Friday) to 18 February 2024 (Sunday) at 7.30pm and 8.30pm. Guests can look out for the God of Fortune on these dates too making special appearances as a pre-show item.

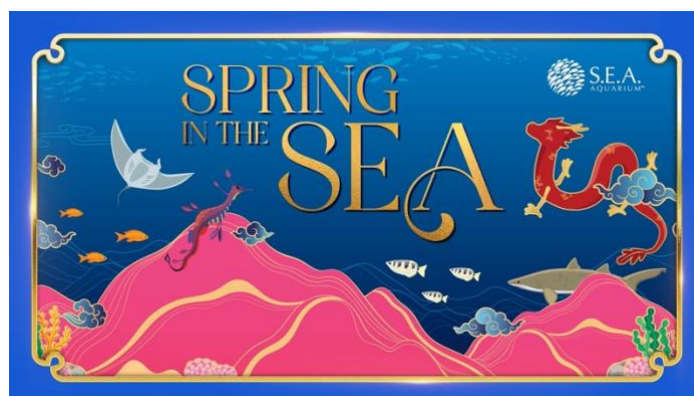

Snap fun Insta-worthy selfies worth sharing with Resorts World Sentosa's lucky dragons along AVE8.

From 23 January till before end February 2024, visitors can capture the picture-perfect and Insta-worthy moments for free at AVE8 (8号街)'s Wealth of Dragons (伶龙闹名胜) whilst admiring the mesmerising and colourful five metres tall Dragon specially installed, accompanied by eight adorable mini Dragons. In addition, visitors can take a peek of their year's fortunes at the free public displays in the Zodiac Gardens located at AVE8 and Level Basement One of the Forum at RWS.

Following enthusiastic response from the resort's recent Superstar Christmas holiday extravaganza, Gourmet Park (美食广场) and AVE8 will be home again to a slew of live bands who will deliver melodious and enrapturing free public performances. Enjoy Mando-pop faves and amazing music from AVE8 live bands from 10 (Saturday) to 18 February 2024 (Sunday) and 24 February 2024 (Saturday). Over at Gourmet Park, it is East meets West where live bands mix it up, combining with Asian-flavoured beats and gourmet-style food at this food truck paradise on 9, 10, 16, 17, 23 and 24 February 2024.

Herald the Lunar New Year at RWS's themed attractions

S.E.A. Aquarium welcomes the Year of the (Sea) Dragon with an exquisite celebration as it dons aqua-themed Lunar New Year decorations from 26 January to 25 February 2024.

Spring in the Sea (海底春意浓, #SpringintheSEAA) will grace the wondrous S.E.A. Aquarium (S.E.A. 海洋馆), ushering the Lunar New Year with a harmonious blend of marine exploration and cultural festivities from 26 January to 25 February 2024. Guests are invited to witness an underwater dragon dance presentation, learn the auspicious meanings of Lunar New Year greetings inspired by various marine life, enjoy a meet-and-greet with the aquarium's friendly manta ray mascot and stand a chance to win a pair of S.E.A. Aquarium VIP Experience adult tickets (worth S$396).

Experience the Underwater Dragon Dance Presentation at the Open Ocean Habitat

A highlight of the celebration is the Underwater Dragon Dance Presentation (龙腾四海) at the Open Ocean Habitat in S.E.A. Aquarium, which depicts the dragon conquering all oceans. This breathtaking performance is more than a visual feast, it symbolises aspirations for excellence and success, blessing guests with fortune and vitality. The underwater dragon dance presentation will take place daily from 26 January till 25 February 2024 at 3.30pm.

Learn the Auspicious Meanings of Greetings Inspired by Marine Animals

Visitors will experience an interactive journey where the wisdom of Chinese greetings intertwines with the fascinating characteristics of marine animals. This journey aims to enlighten guests about characteristics of the sea dragons and their fellow marine residents, while alluding to the esteemed dragon symbol in Chinese culture.

For instance, one of the featured marine animals, the archerfish, has the ability to accurately spit jets of water at flying insects and knock them into the water before consuming them. This special ability links to the auspicious Chinese idiom 鱼跃龙门 (fish leaping through the dragon gate), and is befitting of the little legendary marksman: the trajectory of water jets symbolising career success and the realisation of a better life.

Win S.E.A. Aquarium VIP Tickets (worth S$396) by joining "Spot the Weedy Sea Dragons" Contest

At the "Spot the Weedy Sea Dragons" activity wall, guests are challenged to spot and correctly count the number of weedy sea dragons, in a sea of mythical Chinese dragons and sea dragons. One visitor who has the correct weedy sea dragons count and most creative answer as to who they would bring to the SEAA VIP Experience and why, will win a pair of S.E.A. Aquarium VIP tickets (worth S$396), which includes exclusive access to the aquarium's back-of-house facilities.

Meet & Greet with the Aquarium's Manta Ray Mascot

At the end of their journey at S.E.A. Aquarium, guests may meet and receive a hug from the S.E.A. Aquarium's manta ray mascot. They may take memorable we-fies at the specially designed photo-taking corner. The meet-and-greet sessions will take place at 1.30pm and 4pm on weekdays and 1.30pm, 3pm, 4pm on the weekends and public holidays.

Usher in new beginnings with a fun-filled and auspicious start at Universal Studios Singapore's Lunar New Year event.
