This milestone marks an exciting new chapter in BODHI Spa's global journey.

Nestled within one of Asia's most iconic integrated resorts amid the lush tropical surrounds of Sentosa, BODHI Spa at The Laurus, a Luxury Collection Resort, at RWS, is an oasis of elevated luxury and holistic wellbeing. As BODHI Spa's first international wellness destination, it invites guests to slow down, reconnect and restore balance through a thoughtfully curated mix of immersive wellness therapies.

This uniquely curated offering introduces a deeply holistic approach to wellness to Singapore, seamlessly blending therapeutic massages, radiance-boosting facials, innovative touchless technologies and a private VIP Bathhouse to create refined, restorative experiences that nurture the whole being.

"The opening of BODHI Spa at The Laurus, a Luxury Collection Resort, signals an exciting new phase for us as we step beyond Australia for the first time," said Danny Taylor, Founder of BODHI Spa. "BODHI Spa offers an elevated and unique mix of wellness therapies in Singapore. It combines our award-winning, hands-on approach to wellness with some of the most advanced touchless treatments available, including the ZeroBody Dry Float and Recovery Red Light Pod. A private VIP Bathhouse further enhances this exceptional offering, seamlessly complemented by BODHI Spa's world-renowned approach to guest service excellence. Whether in Australia or Singapore, whilst in our care, our guests are our world."

Mr Andreas Oliver Reich, Senior Vice President, Hospitality, RWS (李安達, 圣淘沙名胜世界酒店业务部高级副总裁), shared: "At The Laurus, a Luxury Collection Resort, within RWS, luxury is defined by comfort, character and a true sense of belonging. in Singapore and beyond - reinforcing RWS' position as a leading tourism destination in Asia and accelerating our growth in the global wellness market.”

BODHI Spa features six exquisitely appointed treatment rooms, including two VIP suites with private ensuite and steam shower. Advanced wellness technologies Zerobody Dry Float and a Recovery Red Light Pod are a unique feature, alongside a luxurious, cloud-like Relax Lounge offering guided meditations for deep restoration and sensory immersion. A private VIP Bathhouse offers contrast therapy, complete with sauna, jacuzzi and pail shower, to further elevate this sanctuary of wellbeing, drawing inspiration from ancient bathing rituals and traditions.

The Zerobody Dry Float offers a deeply restorative weightless floating experience with acoustic meditation to reduce stress and muscle pain, improve sleep, boost immunity and support jet lag recovery. And the Recovery Red Light Pod offers full-body light therapy designed to support cellular regeneration, workout recovery, improved sleep and stress reduction.

Founded in Australia in 2007 and celebrated for redefining the luxury day spa experience, BODHI Spa is synonymous with holistic wellness, mindful design, premium natural products and elevated guest service. Its expansion into Singapore reflects the growing global demand for meaningful, restorative wellbeing experiences within luxury travel and hospitality.

With seven award-winning locations across Australia and now a new eighth location in Singapore, BODHI Spa's mission remains unwavering: to create natural and luxurious experiences that allow guests to relax and indulge, achieve radiant skin health and embrace a deep, enduring sense of wellbeing.
