character appearances that will enthrall everyone in the family. Featuring an immersive Chocolate Garden, this new walkthrough experience allows visitors to explore deliciously-themed zones such as the Fondue Garden, Cocoa Hedge Maze and Lollipop Land – all created to titillate the senses.

Chocoholics can begin their Chocolate Garden journey at the Fondue Garden, dipping marshmallows into chocolate fountains – some even infused with fruity strawberry and fresh pandan flavours – before sinking their teeth into the fluffy treats. Those with a sweet tooth can get creative decorating lollipops and even plant them in the whimsical Lollipop Land, all decked out in larger-than-life colourful candies.

The Chocolate Garden also features a Cocoa Hedge Maze for guests to explore the labyrinth, as well as a station for kids to get hands-on and unleash their inner bakers by decorating cupcakes and cookies. Friendly characters such as Candice Cupcake, Mama Cookie and even Sesame Street’s Cookie Monster will delight visitors with their antics at the Chocolate Garden, providing sweet wefie and Instagrammable moments.

Visitors can go for a park-wide hunt and keep their eyes peeled for the roving Chocolate Man and win mysterious prizes ranging from retail and dining vouchers to Universal Studios Singapore admission tickets, while also enjoying all the adrenaline-filled rides, world-class attractions and exciting entertainment that the theme park has to offer.

At various dining outlets, foodies can indulge in adventurously chocolate-flavoured delights, including Cho-infused Curry with Chicken Katsu, Nutella & Cheese Fries, Crispy Chicken Strips with Chocolate Dip and Cocoa Slush. Visitors can opt for the Sweet Tooth Package and choose three selected chocolate-themed items at participating dining outlets for just S$20.

A Chocolate Adventure is a new experience included with regular paid admission to Universal Studios Singapore. Visitors can enjoy a special package available at S$138 from now till 31 May 2017. The package includes one-day tickets for two adults as well as photo, retail and dining vouchers worth up to S$55.
