Brace Yourself for Infinite Fear at Universal Studios Singapore’s
Halloween Horror Nights 8

- Singapore’s premier scare event returns with the theme of Infinite Fear
- Expect popular Asian and Western horrors including Netflix’s Stranger Things, the legend of the Pontianak and a highly interactive “Killuminati” haunted house
- Back by popular demand, Zombie Laser Tag returns with even more zombies, greater obstacles and a larger arena
- For the first time, fans can immerse in a series of original short horror films leading up to the event

SINGAPORE, 4 July 2018 – From 27 September to 31 October, Singapore’s largest and most iconic Halloween event, Universal Studios Singapore’s Halloween Horror Nights, returns for the eighth edition bringing Infinite Fear to all. Featuring five terrifying haunted houses, three killer live shows and two scare zones, Halloween Horror Nights 8 at Resorts World Sentosa (RWS) is set to be bigger and scarier than ever.

With the theme of Infinite Fear, fans can expect a never-ending cycle of fear, thrills and countless scares. Experience one of the most horrifying tales in Asian folklore such as the legend of the Pontianak and survive vampire-laden secret rooms in Killuminati, the most interactive haunted house ever created in the history of Universal Studios Singapore’s Halloween Horror Nights.

Universal Studios Singapore’s First-Ever Tie-Up with a TV series: Netflix’s Stranger Things
Universal Studios Singapore’s Halloween Horror Nights 8 will be remarkably different from previous editions with the first-ever tie-up with a popular TV series. This year, Universal Studios Singapore will collaborate with Netflix to bring to life its critically-acclaimed series, Stranger Things.

The highly-anticipated Stranger Things haunted house will feature the most number of thematic rooms to date. Fans will be transported into twelve artfully recreated scenes and storylines, from the menacing...
Hawkins National Laboratory, to the Byers home adorned with an erratic display of flashing Christmas lights and the eerie Upside Down woods.

Asian horror take centre stage in four haunted houses
This year’s edition will showcase Asian horror, which have proven to be a hit amongst local guests, in four haunted houses. Fans can enter the world of Killuminati – the Chinese secret society of vampires that has existed for centuries – where mystery, controversy and nightmares await. Watch out for never-before-seen stunts and expect lots of twists in this highly interactive house where even the bravest souls may end up in different secret rooms!

Two haunted houses will unravel the spine-tingling narratives of two different iconic ghosts in Asian folklore: the Japanese ghost story of Yotsuya and the legend of the Pontianak. Step back in time to the chilling Edo-era of Japan in The Haunting of Oiwa and come face-to-face with Lady Oiwa who returns from the dead seeking revenge after being poisoned by her unfaithful husband.

Over at the Pontianak haunted house, thrill-seekers will need to tread carefully in a Malay village as they survive the various hair-raising scenes and stories of the Pontianak unfolding before their eyes, from how she was created, to the banana trees where she resides, and the laundry area where she sniffs out the next victim. For the first time, the infamous long-haired female vampiric ghost gets her very own haunted house named after her.

Two Western-themed scare zones and three live shows
Get thrown into chaos at Apocalypse: Earth as Mother Earth unleashes her most terrifying forces and takes over New York. Guests can also witness the ancient tribe of man-hunters in Cannibal, where the bodies of rivals killed in revenge are being devoured.

Fans can take a break from the screams and join the charismatic Gideon Grim, the Motivational Death Coach, as he captivates guests with tips on highly effective scaring in DEAD Talks! DEAD Talks is an all-new, witty, seminar-style show with cutting-edge illusions, electrifying dancing and acrobatics at the Pantages Hollywood Theater.

Bigger, Better and Scarier: Zombie Laser Tag Back by Popular Demand
Back by popular demand since its debut last year, Zombie Laser Tag returns with an arena double the size. Each team of eight participants will work together for one mission: to fend off and “kill” zombies in infested areas. Participants can expect more zombies, face greater obstacles and rev up for more action, all in the company of a drill sergeant who will lead the way to ensure everyone gets out alive. The Zombie Laser Tag experience is available at an additional $38 per participant.

Start Halloween Early: Immerse in a Series of Original Horror Films
For the first time, Universal Studios Singapore will produce a series of short, original horror films leading up to Halloween Horror Nights 8. These dramatic bite-sized films aim to showcase the riveting stories and iconic supernatural characters of this year’s haunted houses in unique cinematographic styles. These short films will be released between July to August and are available on Resorts World Sentosa’s Facebook, Instagram, blog, Twitter and YouTube.

The special nighttime event will run for 18 nights, including an additional night on 27 September to cater to the growing number of horror fans. Early bird ticket sales will run from now until 12 August at S$55 (non-peak) and S$65 (peak), while standard event tickets are available at S$58 (non-peak) and S$68 (peak) each. Fans can purchase an R.I.P. Tour that includes event admission, a guide who will share insider stories and escort fans to the various experiences, VIP access to haunted houses, private meet-and-greet sessions with creepy characters and more. Guests can also enjoy many of the theme park’s exciting rides and attractions.

Additional information on the haunted houses, scare zones and more can be found in Appendix A and www.halloweenhorrornights.com.sg. Fans are strongly advised to purchase event tickets from RWS website and at Universal Studios Singapore ticket booths.

Scare Zone: Cannibal
Witness the ancient tribe of man-hunters in Cannibal, where the bodies of rivals killed in revenge are being devoured.

This scare zone features a street show – see details under “Shows”.

Zombie Laser Tag
Back by popular demand since its debut last year, the Zombie Laser Tag returns with an arena double the size. Armour up for an action-packed laser tag battle against an army of zombies thirsty for blood. Participants can expect more zombies, face greater obstacles and rev up for more shooting action, all in the company of a drill sergeant who will lead the way to ensure everyone gets out alive in the dark jungles.

Show: Scaremony
When darkness falls at Eight Lake Psychiatric Hospital, fear rises. In this show held at the Hollywood Lagoon Stage, fans will make way through the unsettling, creepy halls of the hospital filled with screaming apparitions of unwilling patients.

Show: DEAD Talk

Show: Blood & Bones
Each month, at half moon, the Chief of the tribe sacrifices their capture at the ancestral altar. The human sacrifice is possessed by the spirit of the ancestors, which gives the tribesmen extra strength when they devour him. Fans will have to brace themselves for this gruesome ritual of Blood & Bones that will turn their stomachs at the Cannibal zone.
