Guests can look forward to a roaring good time at Spring in the Sea, including meet-and-greets with the well-loved Manta mascots, a trail of fortune with colourful festive decorations, an auspicious mural as well as a traditional chunlian (Spring Festival couplet) workshop perfect for family bonding.

Spring in the S.E.A.A. (15 January – 15 February 2022)

As we start the year afresh and welcome new beginnings with festivities and new attires, S.E.A. Aquarium invites guests to join them in being mindful of unnecessary waste when it comes to purchasing New Year's outfits. This Lunar New Year, the aquarium encourages guests to make conscious environmental choices, inspired by the aquarium's very own Fu-Lu-Shou, the adorable Manta mascot trio, that will be dressed in their festive best made using up-cycled and pre-loved materials.

Beyond the iconic Manta trio, shutterbugs can revel in the other memorable photo moments that await at Spring in the Sea. This Year of the Tiger, look forward to the perfect photo spot at the vibrant Sand Tiger Shark Wall Mural featuring the aquarium's star animal of the year, the sand tiger shark. A symbol of strength and might, the "tiger" in the sand tiger shark's name was inspired by their big appetite. Usher in the New Year's huat (good fortune and joy) in the presence of the mighty sand tiger shark as they bite their way into abundance and prosperity.

Along the trail, guests are encouraged to keep their eyes peeled for the aquarium's five auspicious animals of the year – the sand tiger shark, red lionfish, weedy seadragon, tiger cowrie and alligator gar, each representative of strength, luck, longevity, wealth, power and nobility respectively. Take this opportunity to also learn about these marine animals' amazing traits and characteristics that make them living symbols of good fortune.
